Human Resources Payroll Service (SRUS)

To register for the competition for the position of Junior Researcher (R1) and for the position of Research Assistant (RA), the applicant must meet the minimum standards as well as the additional ones imposed by the ICMPP through the Regulation on the organization of competitions for the filling of vacant positions of research, development, and innovation staff within the Institute of Macromolecular Chemistry "Petru Poni" of the Romanian Academy.

In order to register for the competition for a vacant research position, the candidate submits a file, both in physical and electronic format (each document in the physical file will be scanned according to the opis and saved on a mobile memory), which includes the following documents:

(a) the signed application for registration in the competition, to which is attached a declaration on own responsibility by which the candidate certifies the veracity of the information presented in the file;

(b) administrative documents (must contain):

- copy of the identity document or any other document that certifies the identity, according to the law, as the case may be;

- copy of the marriage certificate or proof of name change, as the case may be;

- the medical certificate attesting the state of health corresponding to the performance of the job duties, issued by the candidate's family doctor or by the authorized health units, no more than 3 months prior to the competition;

- criminal record certificate;

- copy of the bachelor's degree or equivalent/master's/doctorate, as the case may be. In the event that the candidate declared the winner does not hold a diploma issued by a higher education institution in Romania, he/she must submit a copy of the original certificate of recognition or equivalence of this before the employment and signing of the individual employment contract, under penalty of non-issuance of the administrative act of employment on the position;

- proof of having the professional degree of research and development corresponding to the immediate position inferior to the one for which he is applying;

- the signed declaration of consent for the processing of personal data;

(c) curriculum vitae signed by the candidate, which must contain:

- the studies carried out and the diplomas obtained;

- professional experience and relevant jobs previously held;

- the research, development and innovation projects that he led as project director and the grants obtained, if applicable, indicating for each source of funding, the budget of the project and the main scientific publications or patents resulted;

- prizes or other elements of recognition of the scientific contribution;

- the narrative description of the 3 most important achievements in the theme of the position for which the competition is organized - maximum 3 pages.

(d) the proposal for the development of the scientific career from the point of view of scientific research activities, of maximum 5 pages, signed;

e) the verification sheet of the fulfillment of the minimum standards, including those established by the CCCDI (if applicable) and the ICMPP own standards corresponding to the position for which candidate, completed and signed by the candidate.

Human Resources Payroll Service (SRUS)

The folder with scientific papers, except for competitions for the occupation of RA positions, includes the list of scientific publications by categories, papers, articles/studies, patents considered by the candidate to be relevant to the field of the position for which he/she is applying, for his/her own scientific research activities, research and development projects based on contract/grant, others (including citations). The list is structured as follows:

- doctoral thesis or theses;
- the list of the 10 most relevant scientific publications (author's books, articles/studies/chapters, edited volumes);
- the list of patents and other industrial property titles;
- the list of author's books and volumes edited and published;
- list of articles/studies in extenso, published in journals of the main international scientific flow;
- the list of other scientific works and contributions or, as the case may be, in the field of artistic creation or national defense;
- research-development-innovation projects on a contract/grant basis;
- other works.

If there are some in the candidate's list of papers that are not available in electronic format, then they are submitted in physical and scanned format in .pdf format.

The competition file is submitted by the candidate in electronic format, at the e-mail address indicated in the competition notice and in physical format, at the ICMPP headquarters.

The files for the competitions are submitted to the Human Resources Payroll Service, room 83, contact person: Narcis-Andrei PRICOB – legal advisor I, email: pricob.narcis@icmpp.ro, phone: 0332 880 050 ext. 207.
